TRUMAN ASKS TRUCE PARLEY ON PALESTINE

President Proposes Arab and Jewish Leaders Meet To Halt Bloodshed.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25 — President Truman proposed today the United Nations call Arab and Jewish leaders into a truce parley to halt bloodshed in Palestine.

He said Warren Austin, American delegate to the UN, will put the proposal before the UN security council:

The President told a news conthe UN, announced the reversal its original stand for partition of Palestine because partition could not be enforced without American troops.

Austin, American delegate to the UN, announcer the reversal last Friday. He proposed a temporary United Nations trusteeship over Palestine.

Mr. Truman said the United States proposed the trusteeship to provide a government "to keep the peace."

Calls Truce Essential

He read to reporters a prepared statement saying a truce must be reached between the Arabs and the Jews "if we are to avert tragedy in Palestine."

"Therefore, he said, he has instructed Austin to call responsible representatives of the Arabs and Jews to a UN council table to seek a truce.

Unless something is done, he declared, "Open warfare is just over the horizon."

He said the United States would be prepared to back a United Nations trusteeship, but when asked if that meant troops would be needed, he replied, not necessarily. He said he did not believe force would be required to enforce trusteeship.

Could Not Use Troops

He said:

"Unfortunately it has become clear the partition plan cannot be carried out at this time by peaceful means.

"We could not undertake to impose this solution on the people of Palestine by the use of American troops, both on (UN) charter grounds and as a matter of national policy."

The President, under questioning, said the British were subposed to stay in Palestine until Aug. 15 but suddendly decided to pull out on May 15.

Asked about that British decision, he commented he did not run the British government.

HOUSE PASSES RENT CONTROL EXTENSION

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25 — A compromise one-year continuation of rent controls was voted by the house today. The senate is expected to follow suit and send the legislation to President Truman by nightfall. The vote was 220 to 95.

Without the legislation the present controls, affecting about 13,000,000 dwelling places and 50,000,000 persons, would end a week from today.

The compromise written by a senate-house conference committee after the two chambers had passed differing bills, modifies the "local option" feature of the house version by giving a special federal court the last word on rent boosts whenever local boards and federal officials disagree.

As passed by the house, prior to drafting of the compromise late yesterday, the bill would have given the local boards, nominated by the governors of the various states, absolute authority to raise rents or decontrol areas completely.

The compromise revises the house bill provision which would have stripped federal officials of final authority in rent decisions.

Missiles That Can Find Target Across Sea Credited To Navy

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, March 25—Plane maker Glenn L. Martin says the Navy has perfected guided missiles that can search out an enemy ship and destroy it "even if it is halfway across the ocean."

The United States' present-day warfare developments, Martin says, also include a radioactive cloud that will kill anything it touches, new bacteria weapons and an A-bomb far more devastating than those dropped on Japan.

The Navy's guided missile is equipped with a homing device which steers it to its target, Martin, head of the plane manufacturing company that bears his name said at a press conference yesterday.

"We can sink the ship even if it is halfway across the ocean. All we have to do is get our own ships out of the way."

The missiles also can be used against iron foundries, he said, and "it will be possible to eliminate a nation's steel industry in time."

The radio-active, or atomic, cloud is spread by wind, he declared. There's a danger of it backfiring on its user if turned loose when weather conditions are not suitable.

"It is effective over a much larger area than is the atom bomb," Martin said, "and might make the area it touches radioactive for an indefinite time."

Martin also mentioned new bacteria weapons, some of them capable of lying dormant for a time and then "making the victim ill, with an illness from which he does not recover."

If another war comes the new weapons make it likely that its ultimate course would be determined within 65 days, he said.

Truman Defends Shipments To Russia "at the Present Time"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25—Congressional indignation over the shipping of supplies to Russia drew from President Truman today the observation that the U.S.S.R. at the present time is a friendly nation.

TELLS OF ENGINE DEALS. Leroy H. Luckey (above), of Dallas, Tex., testified before a house subcommittee that he brought war-type airplane engines from the War Assets Administration last year and sold them for export to Russia and Poland. (Associated Press Wirephoto)

Mr. Truman told a news conference many of the shipments which have drawn fire on Capitol Hill were contracted for by the Soviets two years ago.

He said the commerce department is handling the situation and referred further questions to that department.

After all, he said, Russia is at the present time a friendly nation.

He spoke after congress had heard testimony that American warplane engines and other supplies have been shipped to Russia at a time of critical world tension.

Spurred by disclosures before his house investigating committee, Chairman Riley (R-Okla) told reporters these moves are under way:

▶A demand on the department fo commerce for a complete breakdown of all U. S. materials sent to Russia and her satellite nations.

▶An immediate check into reports that boxes and crates marked for shipment to Russia "are lying all over the New York waterfront."

▶A full-scale inquiry into the operations of Moore-McCormack steamship lines of New York, described by a witness yesterday as the American firm handling all shipments for Amtorg, the official Russian purchasing agency in this country.

Rizley said committee investigators are "already on the spot" to go over Moore-McCormack's records. He said they also will check reports that 60 Russian-flag ships have been loaded in New York harbor since Jan. 1.

Denies Freezing Order

Committee members gaped when Carl Anderson, assistant chief of the state department's international resources division, testified yesterday the department "has not yet worked out a policy of distinction between shipments to friendly and unfriendly countries."

Rizley said he had been told by Jess Larson, war assets administrator, that an "order came through" yesterday freezing the sale of all surplus aircraft, aircraft equipment and parts in the United States.

Other WAA officials said they had no such official notice.

But Riley commented to newsmen: "Presumably the Army and the Navy now want to keep whatever surplus aircraft they have left until they see what turn world affairs are going to take.

"It is ridiculous shipping potential war material to Uncle Joe Stalin when we may find ourselves actually in need of it."

Rep. Kearney (R-NY) echoed this view. He said he is "sickened and disgusted" at the thought that this country is permitting vital supplies to go to the Soviet Union.

Tells of Loadings

Kearney's comment followed an assertion in the house by Rep. Mundt (R-SD) that such things as cranes and motors are being loaded aboard a ship at Jersey City, N. J., due to sail for Russia Saturday.

WOULD BOOST POSTAL RATES

Government Proposal Submitted for House Committee Consideration.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25—A government-proposed boost in most postal rates went before a house committee today.

Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson recommended an increase in all rates except those on (A) first class mail, (B) airmail, (C) publications distributed in the same county where they are issued.

The proposal, sent to Chairman Rees (R-Kas) of the house postoffice and civil service committee, said postal expenses are "exceeding revenues at an ever-increasing pace." But Rees showed little enthusiasm over the proposed boost.

Donaldson said his department expects to lose $345,000,000 on this fiscal year's operations. The suggested increase, he said, would add about $243,970,000 a year to the postoffice's income. These are the proposed rate raises:

The price of post cards—now one cent—would go to two cents.

Newspapers and magazines distributed outside the county they are published in would cost from one cent to one and one-half cents per pound more to mail—except for publications of non-profit religious, educational, scientific, philanthropic, agricultural, labor or fraternal groups.

Third class mail, which includes circulars, books and catalogs—increases ranging from one-half cent to four cents.

Parcel post—A scale of charges ranging from 15 to 25 cents per pound to take the place of the present scale ranging from 8 to 16 cents per pound.

Special delivery—Fees of 25 to 40 cents instead of the present 13 to 25 cents on first-class mail; and fees of 35 to 50 cents instead of the present 17 to 35 cents on other than first-class mail.

Money orders—A fee range of 10 to 35 cents instead of the present range of 6 to 22 cents.

Postal notes—Eight cents per note instead of the present 5 cents.

Registry fees—A scale of 35 cents to $1.65 to relace the present scale of 20 cents to $1.35.

Postal insurance—A scale of 6 to 65 cents instead of the present 3 to 25 cents.

C.O.D. service—A scale of 22 cents to $1.00 in place of the present 15 to 60 cent fees.

PARTY "REVOLT" DOESN'T WORRY HIM, TRUMAN SAYS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25—President Truman said today he is not disturbed by what a reporter described as the "rising revolt" against his nomination this year.

Mr. Truman told a news conference he was correctly reported by Senator Hatch (D-NM), who said a few days ago the President was in the fight to a finish.

QUESTIONS SINCERITY OF 'STOP REDS' DRIVE

Cong. Smith Points To Continued Shipments to Russia.

Frederick C. Smith of Marion, Eighth district congressman, in a statement in the house yesterday questioned the administration's sincerity in trying to stop Communism, according to news reports from the capital.

"How can the American people believe the administration is sincere in stopping Communism or Russian expansionism when we read in the morning papers, '19 Ships Load Goods for Reds'—11 of which are 'flying the American flag.' On the one hand, Marshall Plan aid is allegedly provided the so-called anti-reds of Europe to block Stalin's Westward march. On the other hand, Stalin is being supplied from the same larder with the means of prosecuting his sinister designs to destroy Western civilization.

"There is only one answer to this apparent enigma, namely, the forces controlling the government are so thoroughly in sympathy with Communism that they have lost sight of America's true interests. Except for this fact Stalin and his gang would today be confined within the pre-war borders of Russia. If Stalin is a threat to civilization it is because the men controlling our government during the last 15 years have had more in common with Russian Communism than the things that made the United States of America."

WON'T BE LONG NOW! Tax cut for America's millions appeared certain following the house approval of the four billion, 773 million dollar tax reduction bill, by more than the two-thirds majority necessary to override a presidential veto. In the picture Harold Knutson (R-Minn) (left) of the tax-writing house ways and means committee, is congratulated by Rep. Robert Doughton (D-NC), ranking minority member of the committee. Education Association Opposes Limit on State School Aid

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 25 — The Ohio Education association today lashed out against a proposed state constitutional amendment freezing state aid to schools at $120 a pupil.

W. B. Bliss, OEA's executive secretary, described the proposal as one which "would shortsightedly place a rigid ceiling on the future educational opportunities of Ohio's children."

The Ohio Federation of Teachers (AFL) is circulating petitions favoring the amendment.

"Not only would this proposal freeze in the Ohio constitution legislative details which should be adjustable to contemporary conditions, but also in hundreds of school districts * * * would prevent paying additional increases above the $2,400 minimum salary to experienced teachers," Bliss asserted.

He said the state-aid provision for every pupil would be inadequate to finance a teacher's salary schedule starting at $2,400.

It also, he continued, would result in less equalization of educational opportunities in many districts than is possible under existing legislation.

5,500 Ohio Teachers Below License Standard

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25 — Ohio has 5,500 teachers in public schools who hold below-standard teaching licenses, a new survey showed today.

The study was made by the legislative reference sections of the library of congress at the request of Rep. McCowen (R-Ohio). It concerns federal aid to education.

McCowen has a bill before congress which would provide up to $300,000,000 a year to the states for education purposes.

The survey showed a total of 101,612 teachers in the nation with substandard or emergency licenses. These were issued because of the shortage of skilled teachers since 1941.

A regular license in Ohio carries normal requirement of three years of college work for teaching in elementary schools and four years for junior and senior high school.

The survey showed these other facts concerning Ohio:

Ohio needs 1,500 teachers, according to National Education Association estimates, to replace untrained emergency teachers and to reduce the teacher load in the state to 1940-41 levels. The country needs 78,000 this school year.

The average salary of a classroom teacher in the state is $2,700, compared to $2,187 in the 1946-47 year. The average paid to members of the instructional staff—which includes principals and supervisors—is $3,000, against $2,540 a year ago. Only 11 states pay a higher average salary to classroom teachers.

New York and California average $3,300. The District of Columbia average is $3,398.

To Announce Results Of Red Cross Campaign

City and county workers, together with chairmen and division heads in the annual Red Cross Fund campaign met last night at the chapter office for reports on the countywide drive to raise $25,985, Marion county's goal in the national campaign.

With the fourth week of the drive drawing to a close, the workers have high hopes of topping their goal and final results will be announced when tabulation is completed, probably tomorrow, John W. Watters, chairman for the drive announced.

Several divisions and precincts have reached their quotas, figures presented last night show. Others, with only a small margin to go before reaching their quotas, hope to complete the canvass within a matter of hours.

OHIO FUEL GAS PLANS TO BUILD PIPELINE

Would Serve Marion, Other Towns in This Area.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25 — Ohio Fuel Gas Co., Columbus, wants to build 97 miles of pipelines to serve Marion, Lima, Ada, Indian Lake, Mt. Gilead, Cardington and Kenton.

Ohio Fuel Gas yesterday sought a federal power commission license to extend its natural gas delivery facilities in that area. The estimated cost of the project is $2,986,250.

Ohio Fuel said it planned to extend pipelines from its treat compressor stations to a connection at Lima with facilities of the West Ohio Gas Co. The company also proposes to subsequently remove a 525-horsepower compressor station and 118 miles of existing transmission lines.

Construction would begin in May, Ohio Fuel said, and be completed by Dec. 1.

COAL STRIKE ACTION PLEDGED BY TRUMAN

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25 — President Truman said today he will take whatever steps are necessary—and possible under the law—to settle the coal strike.

He made that comment to a news conference when asked about the board he has appointed to determine the facts in the dispute.

The board was appointed, Mr. Truman explained, when the federal mediation and conciliation service failed to get an agreement between the coal industry and the United Mine Workers.

The President said he is following the law when asked if he plans any appeal to the coal miners to return to work.

The fact-finding board has until April 5 to make its report.

After the board reports, the government can go to the courts and ask an order halting the strike.

The government was reported drafting new coal savings orders.

The President selected a "blue ribbon" board: Federal Judge Sherman Minton, a member of the seventh circuit court of appeals at Chicago; Dr. George W. Taylor, labor relations professor at the University of Pennsylvania and former chairman of the war labor board, and Mark Ethridge, publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

The board will meet here Friday. Some federal officials said hearings may be held through the Easter holidays to complete the report as soon as possible.

SPEEDY ACTION URGED TO MEET SOVIET THREAT

Congress Asked for Draft and Other Steps To Match Russia's Might.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25—The nation's top military leaders asked congress today for an immediate expansion of the armed services and the drafting of men 19 to 25 years of age.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal grimly outlined the recent turn of world events in urging steps to make United States military might match that of Communist Russia.

As Forrestal spoke before the senate armed services committee, President Truman announced he is preparing to give the congress a revised defense program.

Mr. Truman told his news conference he can't estimate yet how many additional billions of dollars the program will cost. Estimates from the defense department have not yet reached him, he said.

Forrestal said the odds still favor peace and the free nations of the world.

But he asked congress to approve immediately:

▶An increase in the present authorized strength of Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force manpower by 349,500 officers and men.

▶Another $3,000,000,000 in cash and contract authority for the armed services to cover this expansion. This presumably would be in addition to $11,000,000,000 already in the budget.

▶Drafting by selective service of men from 19 to 25 years inclusive. He said this would provide 1,355,000 men but added that only about 220,000 probably would be taken. He estimated 500,000 probably would volunteer.

▶A permanent system of universal military training which would become fully effective within three years. Forrestal said this would provide some 850,000 men each year with basic training.

Forrestal said some of the details of the expanded armed service program must be presented later behind closed doors."

"Because of the world situation as it exists today, there is certain detailed information which we cannot safely disclose in open session," Forrestal said.

The current strength of the armed services is 1,392,000.

Forrestal indicated in his testimony before the senate armed services committee that war veterans will not be included in the draft plans.

He said the 19-25 year age group includes a "total of 3,600,000 male non-veterans."

Married Men Excluded

Exemptions and deferments would reduce that number to 1,355,000, the secretary said. He did not immediately explain the basis for exemptions and deferments but senators have said they would exclude married men.

Forrestal said the 349,500 increase in the regular armed forces would be divided this way:

"The Army, by 240,000, from 542,000 to 782,000;

"The Navy by 63,000; from 397,000 to 460,000;

"The Marine corps, by 11,000, from 81,000 to 92,000;

"The Air Force, by 35,500, from 364,500 to 400,000."

This would require an additional $3,000,000,000 outlay, he said, which soon will be asked of congress.

Largest Cost Items

Biggest items in this were listed as: $775,000,000 for aircraft procurement, research and development for the air force and naval aviation.

About $700,000,000 for military personnel costs.

He said the costs of UMT already are covered in the budget and include an appropriation of $500,000,000.

Reason Made Clear

Forrestal used blunt words to make clear he is asking for men and money to combat the spread of Russian influence. Comparing the Soviet with the governments of Kaiser Wilhelm, of Hitler and Mussolini, he told the committee:

"Today, another power, wearing the false mask of freedom for the people seeks to spin its web over all western Europe. * * *

"It must be made clear and manifest to the world that any nation which tries to copy the pattern of action which through Hitler brought so much disaster on mankind must, like Hitler and Germany, face the [illegible] and will of the United [illegible]

2 GROCERY STORES LOOTED BY THIEVES

Cigarets, Meat, Change and Confections Taken.

Two neighborhood grocery stores were entered by burglars last night, police reported today.

Police cruisermen discovered J. E. Rissler's grocery, 331 South Vine street, had been entered when they made a routine check of the premiss at 12:25 p. m. Entry was gained through a window opening on an alley at the south side of the building. Two cartons of cigarets, a small amount of loose change, ice cream, candy bars and chewing gum was taken.

The second breakin was discovered by Floyd Lashey, manager of Springer's Market at 302 Silver street, when he opened the store this morning at 7:45 a. m. The burglars gained entrance by breaking a basement window and sash on the west side of the building, entering the basement, prying a padlock off the basement door and entering the store room on the main floor. Nothing of value was missing, Lashey reported. Apparently the burglars ate some cold meat from the store refrigerator and departed with empty hands and full stomachs.

At 7:17 a. m. Lloyd Gillette of 142 Fies avenue reported to police the theft of a spare tire, tube and wheel from the rear of his car parked in the rear of his home.

Investigation of all three cases is in progress, a police department spokesman said.

REPORT SIX FINED ON TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

Seven arrests and six convictions on minor traffic charges were reported by the state highway patrol today.

James Keys of 718 Kentucky avenue, arrested south of Marion on route 23 at 7:15 p. m. yesterday, was fined $10 and costs in municipal court today on a plea of guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without driver's license.

Robert Burling of Bucyrus was fined $10 and costs on a similar charge in municipal court. He was arrested on route 23 at 10 p. m. yesterday.

Robert Oberlin of Toledo, O., charged with failure to register a motor vehicle, was fined $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to the charge. He was arrested on March 20 on route 23.

Earl Fullner of Plattsburg, N.Y., was fined $10 and costs in Mayor Bennington's court in Mt. Gilead, charged with passing on a curve on route 42 at 2:15 p. m. yesterday.

Soloman Felner of Cleveland, charged with driving a motor vehicle without operator's license, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $10 and costs by P. A. Richeson in the Cardington court.

Theodore Bowman of near Cardington was fined $10 and costs on a plea of guilty in municipal court, charged with operating a motor vehicle with insufficient lights. He was arrested yesterday at 10:30 p. m. on route 95.

David Kappenberger of Bucyrus, arrested on a charge of driving a motor vehicle at an excessive speed on route 4-north at 11 p. m. yesterday, posted $25 bond for his appearance in court on March 27.

Two Auto Accidents Reported to Police

City police reported two accidents early this morning.

The first occurred at 6:38 a. m. A city car, used by City Engineer Tom Cathers, was parked in the police zone on Orchard street beside city hall when a car driven by Robert Van Gorden, 22, of 735 North State street hooked its right rear fender on the bumper of the city car as Van Gorden pulled to the curb to park. Damage was slight. Van Gorden was already under arrest at the time for permitting Florence Mae Thompson, 23, of 355 Fies avenue, also under arrest, to drive his car on West Center street without a driver's license. Both were held to appear before Judge Hazen who this morning fined each $10 and costs.

The second traffic accident occurred at 7:10 a. m. when a Borden Dairy truck, driven by Walter Edward Gillis, 47, of 120 East Washington street and a car driven by Heber D. Bonnette, 58, of 621 Irey avenue collided while both were traveling west in the 200 block of Columbia street. Police listed as a contributing factor the presence of parked cars on both sides of the street. Damage to both cars was slight.

The United States has approximately three billion more families than in 1940.

Whittling Government Expenses

IN GOING over federal expenditures, the house appropriations committee uncovers all manner of evidence that government officers are inefficient, that extravagance is the rule all along the line. The New Deal efforts to "spend the country rich" set in motion forces not easily checked.

Two and one-half years after the war, the federal payroll has 1,992,000 names, 1,273,000 more than in 1935. In 1914, it cost $300,000 to operate the White House; this year the budget request is for $960,000. In 1938, personnel departments got along with 4,197 employes; today the figure is 25,191, up 600 per cent. The ratio of government personnel workers to other employes is about 1 to 85, in industry the ratio ranges from 1 in 200 to 1 in 3,500. The President maintains a private "emergency" fund, something prewar presidents got along without. This year the fund was allocated $500,000; for next year the President asked $1,000,000, but was given $700,000.

While no estimate is possible on what could be saved if government offices were efficiently operated, it's safe to say that savings would pay for a substantial part of the cost of defense and foreign aid. If the house committee had cooperation instead of sullen opposition it would be a simple matter to pare the budget. As it is, every dollar whittled from an appropriation is a major operation accompanied by shrieks of pain from bureaucrats.

Some Problems Can't Be Solved

THIS is as good a time as any to review the irreconcilable elements of Holy Land strife.

The Arabs are determined to keep the Zionists from setting up a Jewish state.

Great Britain, which started all this with its Balfour Declaration, is determined to wash its hands of the whole business.

The United Nations is determined to try to do something to avert open conflict; unfortunately, it has no military power to do anything.

The United States, which does have military power, is determined as a result of recent events involving Russia to let nothing interfere with the security of its position in the Middle East.

Russia, which also has military power, is determined as a result of recent events involving the United States to do everything it can to interfere with the security of the U S position in the Middle East

There are some problems in international relations that can't be solved because too many irreconcilable factors are involved Palestine looks like one of them

Alcoholics Need Help

A PUBLIC health approach to alcoholism, as recommended by the recent symposium arranged by the Ohio welfare department, would have advantages beyond better care for alcoholics as a public responsibility.

The probable change in social attitude that would accompany a public health approach would help the alcoholic where help would do the most good—at the friendship level If alcoholism were generally thought of as an affliction, its victims would have somewhat the same position as diabetics, who cannot safely consume excessive amounts of sugar. They would be entitled to protection. The time might come when it would be as unthinkable to give a known alcoholic a drink as to force sugar on a diabetic.

Certainly not the least of the benefits of a public health approach to alcoholism would be the enlightened social attitude that would make it possible—the attitude that alcoholics are entitled to as much help from their fellowmen as the victims of any other widespread affliction The groundwork for such an attitude has been prepared by progress in the last few generations toward acceptance of responsibility for all persons who need help to keep themselves from becoming liabilities.

The Campus Vote

THE COLLEGE student vote, heretofore regarded as negligible, will be an important factor in this year's presidential campaign. The campus vote will encompass some 1,250,000 veterans, their wives and many who feel the influence exerted by the veteran's political consciousness.

In Europe and South America, universities always have been political hotbeds. American students of the past were either too young to vote or too busy with books, proms and athletics to bother with politics. It will be different this year. The Young Republican organization has formed clubs on 1,730 campuses. The campus vote can no longer be dismissed as inconsequential.

Did You Know

Among 1,000 Americans during a normal year 470 will have no recognized illness, 320 will be sick once, 140 will be sick twice, 50 will be sick three times and 20 will be sick four or more times.

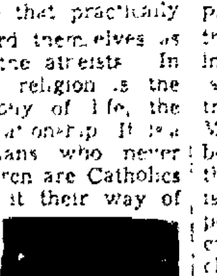
Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

The Communists' Techniques of Confusion.

IN Italy, the Communist party supports religion. Italy is peculiarly a Roman Catholic country in the sense that practically all Italians regard themselves as Catholics, even the atheists. In such a country, religion is the national philosophy of life, the central social relationship. It is a civilization. Italians who never set foot in a church are Catholics because without it their way of life would lack meaning. That is admittedly difficult for Americans to understand; here it was possible for the supreme court to outlaw religion — any and all religion —to make atheism a way of life.



SOKOLSKY

So, whereas the whole of Marxian philosophy is based upon a biologic conception of life which rejects God and the supernatural in Italy, the same party, the same individuals support religion, encourage church marriages, baptisms confirmations. By this device they encourage the Italians to believe that their Communists are simply politicians vying for power that they do not have a philosophy of life which is utterly different from the Christian philosophy of life. It is a wonderful device

Strategy Used

Of course the Communists attack the Vatican and the Catholic clergy, but not the religion that they represent This is clever too For by not attacking the religion but only the clergy, they seek to separate the people from their intellectual leaders who happen to be the clergy, just as in Romania Bulgaria and Yugoslavia they killed or exiled professors of the universities, school teachers, middle-class leaders—separating their peoples from their leaders In Poland, they killed most of them Many in Hungary were exiled to Yakutsk. It is a technique of confusion designed to leave the people almost helpless. For in many countries in Europe, particularly in those where literacy is not too high, the intellectual plays an extraordinarily important role of leadership. By killing off or exiling the anti-Communist intellectuals, the Russians open the door for their stooges to act as substitutes.

And now, they have started a new campaign The Italians are naturally proud of the fact that for over four centuries every Pope has been an Italian. Now the Communists in Italy are telling the people that the next Pope is to be an American There are three of them, Cardinals Stritch, Mooney and Spellman who are being advertised as prospects for the papal succession Behind that is the scare that "American imperialism" will force an American Pope on the Italian people. A clever device.

No Regard for Truth

In a word, not only is "American imperialism" a dollar control of a country, according to the Communists, but in Italy it takes on a special form of also controlling the Vatican This is an example of the way this party operates on a universal scale In each country it employs whatever techniques serve for the moment It does not matter whether there is the slightest truth in what they say. Does the truth matter? Does anything matter but the end to be achieved? For that end, they will lie, they will even kill It is what the Communists regard as the "inevitable" end, for which all things may be done

And that is what Americans must remember We Americans are irrevocably attached to freedom of the individual, freedom of speech of thought, of expression in every manner So when the Communists need to cover their corruption, they shriek about freedom That immediately evokes every sense of fair play and decency in an American. Why should not every American or, for that matter, every human being, be free to express himself as he chooses Are we to have thought control? Are we to have censorship of the movies? Are we to refuse to recognize that there is another side to every question?

Let us look at the other side of that picture. A vast international conspiracy directed centrally by a universal state, designed to achieve a world unity around a separate creed, functioning in every country through disciplined agents, obedient to the will of an elite, operates in the United States as it does in Italy, France Czechoslovakia, China, everywhere.

Are we not to protect ourselves? Is it necessary that we should be destroyed as a people because we dare not protect ourselves?

New Responsibility for U. S.

By Walter Lippmann

THE burden of responsibility upon Washington today is different in kind from any that an American administration has previously borne.

In the 19th century the United States was not a great power at all. In the two world wars of this century the United States became involved and intervened after war had started, long after war had started. The American people were in at the finish but not at the beginning

LIPPMANN

In the events that led up to the wars, in the decisions that gave them their character, their temper, and their main strategical form, the American government played no important conscious part

The issues, the pattern, and the main objectives had already been set sufficiently by what had happened before America became a belligerent so that the choices of high policy were comparatively narrow and limited

They had in large measure already been examined and defined by our allies and by the coalition of our opponents, and our role was broadly speaking, that of a fresh and powerful auxiliary. That may have something to do with the fact that in both wars, our diplomacy has been unequal to the task of making peace after a decisive military victory

The position today is quite different. In an unprecedented degree the strategical initiative and the prime responsibility for acting on it are now in Washington—on Secretary Marshall and Secretary Forestal and the chief of staff We are no longer the new world come to redress the balance of the old

Must Change View

Vitally important as it is therefore, that we develop military power promptly, we cannot now think of ourselves—as we have in the two world wars—as certain to prevail if we perform quickly the task of recruiting, training, organizing, and of supplying, powerful forces, and of mastering the problems of logistics, of tactics and of the strategy of campaigns.

Upon all these talks and problems there is superimposed for the first time in any comparable measure the problem of the highest strategy, with which Prime Minister Churchill President Roosevelt and Secretary Stimson were so continually concerned, where military decisions and statesmanship are inseparable and indistinguishable

These problems are difficult enough after a war has begun They are even more difficult—they require greater and rarer faculties of insight and judgment —at a time like this, when decisions have to be taken for the purpose of preventing war, and of being in an advantageous position in case of war, and of being able to conclude a war if it comes

A failure to seize and master the critical problems that lead up to a showdown, and it it may be war could lead to irreparable disaster. We all know that to give away continually—the policy of appeasement—means that in the end aggression becomes insatiable.

Other Mistakes Possible

But a refusal to appease is not the whole of statesmanship We have to remember that appeasement is not the only mistake that can be made There is also the fearful mistake of becoming so overextended and dispersed that there is no sufficient power anywhere There is also the mistake of becoming engaged in the wrong place and at the wrong time.

There is also the mistake, which can be fatal to the strongest nation of becoming committed to unlimited objectives, of conducting not a diplomatic policy or even a war, but a general crusade. For that must mean that the most complete military victory would still have peace unattainable

The history of the decline of the western powers in this century is warning that these considerations are now real and pertinent to us. In the first world war France was the center of the western coalition and bore the brunt of the fighting. She has never recovered from her losses

In the second world war Britain was the center of the western coalition and bore the brunt of the struggle If there is another world war, we shall be the center of the brunt of the western effort.

We cannot consider too thoroughly how we can best make sure that a war, if it is unavoidable, is not begun in such a way, or fought for such unlimited and unattainable end, that it can never be concluded and settled, and that the last great power of the western world is not exhausted and bled white.

Advice from an Expert

By Raymond Moley

THE scene is the shadowy corner of a bistro in Florence. as Mr. Truman might say, the time is now.

The young American consular officer had been enchanted by the black, piercing eyes and impassive features of the Italian at the next table long before that person moved over and opened a conversation

"You are an American, I assume And may I, without offense, ask your occupation?

MOLEY

"Ah, the foreign service! That opens many memories in my mind, for in a small clerkship in the government of this city I began my career so many, many years ago. My fellow clerks were accustomed to what I called high thinking and low living in places like this

"I hope you will not be startled if I introduce myself at once, for I have something to say to you of critical importance for your country and mine

"I am the spirit of Niccolo Machiavelli. In expiation for certain passionate misdemeanors in youth, I was condemned after my death to wander over the world and to observe the feeble progress of men who never seemed to master the science of living together. This cruel posthumous punishment was not inflicted because of my books, although my writings have been condemned by high authorities.

Like All Tyrannies

"I am concerned with what is happening in Europe and with what is to happen in the Italian election next month I am, as you know if you have read my 'Discourses on Livy,' a believer in democracy. In the long run people gain more from republican government than from the rule of any prince. This Communist dictatorship can end only as tyrannies have ended before, but perhaps at a terrible price to the world.

"But the issue is to win a sweeping victory over Communism in this election. In my writings I made clear the futility of fortresses as bastions. Your country, however, powerful, cannot maintain European peace by military force Ultimately, peace will be preserved by collective satisfactions of the people of Europe

"Winning this election goes back to the best means of winning the support of many people That in turn, involves understanding the nature of people I have pointed out that human beings are moved, among other things, by lively expectation of personal benefits or by the receipt of material rewards

"Ringing Dollars"

"Italian republicanism, however, is poor and can ill afford the gratuities necessary to arouse the people in an election. Russia has riches of sorts, but it cannot quickly distribute desirable cash America is rich. Its dollars ring out everywhere. Among its people are many who know expertly how to distribute gratuities to great advantage. I have seen much of America in my spirit life and I have greatly admired some of those organized groups called machines.

"You should select with care a number of effective but not well-known Italian-speaking political workers, provide them with American money—a million bills of small, denominations—and have them work quietly in all parts of Italy

"The material favors they should bestow should be called, as they are in America, 'getting out the vote.' This is not bribery. It is a way of rewarding people for performing what you call a civic duty. Be sure you so designate this operation, because Americans would not openly espouse bribery, except in war.

"Larger rewards for energetic action might be provided for leaders of non-Communist parties such as the Socialists.

"The promise of a return of Trieste is good, because the Italian people, largely because of my inspiring words about patriotism, are devoted to their national interests But patriotism alone is not enough What you might call 'personalized gifts' are also essential

"And when you tell this to your superiors in Washington do not mention me. That would ruin it all Give them the meat of what I have said They—especially those who have lived with a successful machine—will understand"

A Tip to Farmers

By The Associated Press

LARAMIE, Wyo—Ever thought about a Christmas tree farm?

W. O. Edmondson, Wyoming agricultural extension service forester, has. He's decided it could make farmers some money in their off-season while using spare land.

"By planting an acre a year to trees spaced six feet each way, a grower can market about 1,000 trees a year after the first trees have grown to merchantable height," says Edmondson, adding that will take six to 15 years, depending on the species used

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Letters for Special Delivery

MR JAMES CAESAR PETRILLO,

Dear Jabez:—

Next to the first robin and a daffodil pok its head outside my window, your recent announcement that you have made peace with radio is the most welcome event of a late spring, but you will pardon me for looking for a catch in it. For some time I will keep fearing an explanation from you that it was all a mistake to reading spring poetry or seeing a lambkin gambol on a green somewhere.

PHILLIPS

It could even be that, being a great judge of news values, you realized that any man taking a peaceful step anywhere today would be a global standout You could even get the Nobel peace prize, who can tell" But, of course, your announcement has left the public reeling around the room expecting any minute to hear that John L. Lewis has quit the coal miners to play Little Eva in a Tom show and that Marshal Tito has resigned to raise pigeons.

Right in plain type it says that you have come out for an agreement with radio for three years dropping all your recent demands, giving the stations the green light and that (excuse me while I see if my head is on straight) you "fully recognize the development stage of television and wish to help it grow."

* * *

I read it again, thinking maybe the word was "blow" or "go" instead of "grow." But there is no mistaking the word. You, James Caesar Petrillo, cooperating with radio! (Just a minute while I take some spirits of ammonia) We Jimmy, I have never been knocked so groggy since Hitler decided he had been shooting the wrong people and Gargantua started playing with old tire shoes.

* * *

You wouldn't be holding a bass viol behind you with one hand while you offer the olive branch with the other would you, James?

* * *

No? So you are on the level! Okay, it comes as a great relief on account of I have not been able to enjoy radio music for years. When it was good I was afraid you would step in and interrupt it. When it was bad I was afraid you would not.

* * *

They tell me the wives of the musicians are behind your sudden switch to sweetness and light; that with television they think their husbands look no worse on a small screen than boxers shortstops and soap opera people. Another story is that the moosickers themselves have developed a camera fixation and a screen complex. I wouldn't know.

* * *

If all the fiddle players of the country suddenly begin trying to register screen personalities, the radio audience is going to suffer horribly. Some of my best friends are moosickers, but all violinists and oboe players look alike, and when you have seen one trombone player you have seen 'em all.

* * *

However, peace is peace and a little of it around somewhere should be deeply appreciated so good wishes to all concerned and don't say it was something you ate.

Sincerely,
ELMER.

Soft, Springy Sod

By TRUMAN TWILL

The time is here again to do something about the lawn. The place where the lawn would be there were one can be plowed up and planted in forage crops, root crops, or seed crops. This was the old-fashioned way. It fell into disrepute because grass-seed companies promoted the idea of a perishable nature. The public fell in line because the grass-seed companies had a right to live, and besides their illustrations were pre

Or the place where the lawn would be if there were one can be covered with concrete, gravel or stuff called black top, thus assuring a solid footing underneath and eliminating further care. This met the resistance of lawn mower companies, which also have a right to live The public fell in line.

Or the place where the lawn would be if it can be covered with mats like those used by the better class of undertakers at the better class of funerals. The trouble with this is that the mats must be taken in during the rainy season to prevent fading, and besides the idea has a connotation of pomp and artificiality. So the public fell in line The poor, dumb public.

It made a show of going along with the various interests pushing sod and continues, despite bitter disappointment, to believe that each new growing season will give it some sod to pamper, manicure, trim, sprinkle, cherish in sickness and in health, dig weeds out of, put more fertilizer into and to keep dogs and children from destroying any more than absolutely necessary which is enough to spell defeat.

Each spring the barren wastes that would be lawns if circumstances were favorable receive fresh doses of grass seed, fertilizer, weed killer, raking, rolling, fussing and fuming. Brown banks and bare spots are nursed, cursed and dosed with stuff supposed to be good for them out of the economy-size package.

And each summer what was to be a lawn turns out to be what it always was before—a barren waste. And each fall and winter the waste becomes a quagmire pocked with the heavy tread of children, dogs, stray automobiles and herds of dinosaurs that come out of nowhere, do their damage and go back where they came from, with nothing to mark their passing but tracks measuring from 10 to 23 inches in diameter.

The time has come again. The grass-seed companies, fertilizer companies, lawn mower companies and weed-killer companies must live. But the suspicion grows that they must live so millions of human beings who would rather be doing something else must knock themselves out trying to make grass grow where no grass ever grew before and never will grow again.

Opening of the spring crop season finds farmers of Ohio in a better position from the standpoint of soil resources than ever before, T. C. Kennard, state conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation service announced today The outlook for the 1948 crop year is encouraging, Kennard said, because of the fine progress farmers of the state rang up during the past 12 months, ending March 1, in developing soil conservation programs

Commenting upon the state figures, C W Baldinger, chairman of the Marion county soil conservation district board of supervisors, said "More and more farmers of Ohio are adopting soil conservation methods as a means of increasing their cash incomes and protecting the land, which is their capital investment, from further depreciation through erosion

Marion County Record

"We feel that cooperators of this district have turned in a progress record during the past 12 months which will compare favorably with that made in any other soil conservation district of the state

"Using the special assistance given them on the land by technicians of the U S soil conservation service, our farmers will have 115 acres of crop land farmed on the contour during 1948 Construction of 11,500 lineal feet of grass waterways during the past 12 months, the liming of 1,426 acres and the tile draining of 500 acres, are just a few of the accomplishments achieved by our local cooperators during the past year"

Kennard's report shows that farmers of Ohio have now organized a total of 64 soil conservation districts, seven of which they voted in during the last 12 months Judging from the widespread interest shown in other localities, Kennard said, it appears reasonable to predict the state will have approximately 70 districts by July 1.

During the past 12 months, Ohio farmers developed 2,560 complete farm conservation plans with technical assistance of the Soil Conservation Service This brought the state's current total up to 7,272 plans

Aided by Technicians

In addition, technicians of the service gave 288 other farmers assistance in starting one or more soil conservation practices. These starting practices usually lead to the development by the farmer of a complete farm conservation plan which fits his program to the land, acre by acre

The Service also furnished Ohio farmers with engineering and technical assistance on group enterprises such as community drainage projects During the past 12 months, 27 such projects were completed in this state At the present time, the state conservationist reports, soil conservation districts now cover 68 per cent of the state's 22 million acres of farm land.

Ohio farmers enter the spring farming season, Kennard announced, with these totals of soil conservation practices already applied on the land 41,600 acres being farmed on the contour, 73,000 acres contour strip cropped, 191 miles of terraces already constructed, one million lineal feet of diversions built to control water run-off and soil washing; 840 farm ponds already built, 17,067 acres of pasture improved; 17,759 acres of land brought into better production by drainage; three million lineal feet of grass waterways established; 9,300 acres of woodlands already being improved and 3,600 acres of field and gully planting

Stomach Ulcer Treatment Requires Patient's Help

With good treatment, ulcer of the stomach can be controlled and healed, but the best doctor in the world can do little with this disorder unless he has the complete cooperation of the patient For this reason those afflicted should understand not only their own role in producing a cure, but also just what the doctor tries to accomplish with the different phases of treatment.

Ulcer, either in the stomach or the first part of the intestine, known as the duodenum, causes attacks of pain which come on from one to three hours after eating. This pain may be due either to excessive contractions of the muscles of the stomach and bowel or to an increased secretion of acid by the stomach. Hence, in controlling pain the doctor will seek to counteract both conditions

To produce muscular relaxation, such drugs as phenobarbital may be employed, prescribed, of course, in the proper dose by the doctor.

He will be doubly concerned about excessive acid because it is not only a source of pain but a constant irritation of ulcer and a preventive of healing. Various drugs have been used to control the acid, such as mixtures of baking soda and alkaline substances Aluminum hydrochloride is also used to absorb the acid

Another way of neutralizing the acid is to give milk continually through a tube which has been passed through the stomach into the first part of the intestine This should be done over a period of several weeks If this treatment is not practicable it is suggested that a mixture of olive oil and magnesium trisilicate with milk, be given every two hours.

The patient is also fed at two-hour intervals with a diet made up of eggs, milky foods, bread and butter, fruit juices and, finally, mashed fruits and vegetables and fish and chicken Highly seasoned foods and bulky foods should not be eaten

We do not know either the exact cause for stomach ulcer itself or for the increased amount of acid found in the stomach in these cases We do know, however, that both conditions occur in thin, active, energetic persons who live under high nervous tension.

This observation that ulcer is the affliction of the high-strung—led to the perfecting of a new operation for ulcer Known as vagotomy, it consists of cutting the part of the vagus nerve which leads to the stomach thus sparing this sensitive organ some of the nervous strain under which such people live It has been found useful in some cases

Even after his ulcer has healed, the patient should realize that he must still take precautions to prevent a recurrence If he goes back to his old habits of body and mind, the chances are that the factors which produced the first ulcer will sooner or later result in another.

The patient should be instructed to take adequate time for eating, to avoid irritating foods, such as mustard, vinegar, and alcoholic beverages, and to get plenty of sleep In fact, if the patient can slow down and free himself from worry and strain, the excessive acid in the stomach often subsides The first sign that it is returning is discomfort before eating or upon waking during the night. Prompt treatment of these early symptoms may prevent a recurrence of the ulcer.

When symptoms of ulcer occur, a careful study by the physician is necessary to make a diagnosis In this study the doctor must take a careful and detailed story of the pain or discomfort He must make a complete physical examination, examine the patient by means of the fluoroscope, and take X-ray films At times, it is even necessary to examine him with a gastroscope This consists of a tube with a light on the end of it, and it enables the doctor to get direct vision of the inside of the stomach If an ulcer is present, treatment should be started promptly

Questions and Answers

S H What causes canker sores in the mouth?

Answer. It is thought that canker sores are due to sensitization to some one food, to infection with a virus, or to improper diet. In many instances when they do occur, they clear up quickly if they are touched with a weak solution of silver nitrate.

Deer Comes to Dinner And Decides To Stay

By The United Press

BRODHEAD, Wis.—An albino deer appeared at the Orville Miller farm last November and decided to stay.

The deer, named Bucko by Mrs. Miller, became such a pet that Miller decided to give it a permanent home. He has applied for a license to establish a one-acre deer farm.

Bucko has 10-point antlers—18 inches across—and the ends are flattened like a moose's.

"I'm going to try to get some regular deer to keep him company," Miller said.

DEMOCRATS TALK OF TAX VOTES SWITCH

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, March 25—Reports that President Truman soon will propose new billions for defense prompted vote-switching talk today among Democrats who cast previous ballots for tax cutting.

Republican leaders insisted, however, not enough shifts will occur to uphold Mr. Truman's virtually certain veto of their $4,800,000,000 tax reduction bill.

That measure completed its first trip through congress yesterday. The house rolled up a thumping 289 to 67 tally, 51 votes more than the two-thirds majority needed to override a presidential rejection.

The senate passed the bill on Monday by a count of 78 to 11, or 18 votes to spare if the lineup remains the same on the veto.

PACEMAKER - with a new kind of pull

Take a searching look beneath the smart lines of this brawny traveler and you'll meet up with things you'll itch to get your hands on.

For this is the Buick ROADMASTER, biggest of all the Buicks and lively as few cars of its inches are.

That broad, stretching bonnet is packed to the brim with brilliant Fireball power — up to 150 hp. of it.

It is velvety smooth power, too, made cushiony and quiet by Buick's new Hi-Poised engine mountings that smother vibration build-up and make engine sensation virtually imperceptible.

It is power in beautiful balance with ride-steadying roadweight — power so great that with all the bulk and size of this eighteen-foot beauty, it is one of the liveliest performers on the road, a giant obedient and gentle even under a woman's light touch.

There's the room here of three-person seats — the traveling quiet of Sound-Sorber top lining — the soft, easy stride of all-coil springing and over-size low-pressure tires on extra wide rims.

There's the pace-making style of a long and graceful carriage so instantly spotted, so distinguished in every detail, that it needs no name plate to identify it unfailingly.

And with all this, here is the only car in the world in which you can get Buick's wonderful new Dynaflow Drive.*

Only in ROADMASTER can you get the utter smoothness, the quick, easy getaway, the silken flexibility of Dynaflow, the drive in which liquid replaces both the clutch and the usual low-second-high gear shifting of the conventional transmission.

Obviously, for a pace-making buy, the smart move is to see your Buick dealer — with or without a car to trade—and get your order in.

MONSANTO TEXAS CITY OPERATION DATE SET

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, March 25—The Texas City, Texas, plant of the Monsanto Chemical company is expected to be in operation by June. The plant was destroyed last April by a ship explosion in the harbor.

Queeny said the first unit at Texas City, the ethylene plant, will be running next month.

2,000,000 Children On Religious Education Rolls

The recent supreme court decision on the issue of religious education in the public schools was one of the most important in several years on that subject. Widely-varying interpretations have been placed on the court's ruling, and on how many of the various religious education programs over the country are affected. The following summarizes the situation two weeks after the high court ruling.

* * *

By RUTH GMEINER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 25—Public school officials all over the country are concerned about the religious education issue.

Their worry began two weeks ago when the supreme court handed down a decision entitled "McCollum vs. Board of Education of Champaign, Ill."

That decision held that the constitution prohibits the compulsory public school system from cooperating in the religious instruction of school children.

The best available figures show that 2,000,000 children in 2,200 communities were attending some kind of religious classes during school hours a year ago. The number had doubled in seven years. Today, the number of communities involved probably is closer to 3,000.

In one sample community, Shelburne, Vt., 200 pupils receive religious instruction in the public school from a Catholic priest and a Protestant minister under a plan similar to the one found unconstitutional in Champaign. A few days after the Champaign ruling, school authorities announced that classes will continue.

A school board member said, "The supreme Court has passed on one particular case about one particular place." Lawyers who have studied the opinion think it was wrong.

In New York City, a different kind of "released time" program is in operation. Once a week, 111,000 pupils are excused from school for an hour to go to church classes.

School superintendent William Jansen announced, "We will continue with our present program until the courts or some other authority decide it is unconstitutional." He was promised a test suit by the free-thinking father of a New York schoolboy.

Legal experts now have sifted through the 20,000 words of Justice Hugo L. Black's majority opinion, two concurring opinions and one dissent.

Their analyses do not agree on what specific religious programs fall within the supreme court ban. Several more law suits may be necessary to clarify the matter. But all are agreed the scope of the ruling goes far beyond Champaign, Ill.

The U. S. office of education and the National Education association have suggested a simple test. Compare the features of the now-questioned religious instruction plans with the Champaign system. The greater the similarity, the more likely the plan is illegal. On the other hand, "the greater the dissimilarity, the more debatable is the application of the McCollum decision."

Lawyer-Educator Views

The lawyers say the court's opinion rested on these three pacts in the Champaign plan:

1. Public school buildings were used for religious education.

1. The school authorities cooperated in the program.

3. The compulsory school system was used to assist religious sects in carrying out their program of instruction.

NEA lawyers have prepared a summary of the probable effects of the Champaign case on the other religious instruction plans. Here is what they think:

1. "Definitely unconstitutional"—Any plan under which the school system releases pupils from regular school classes and provides classrooms and other services for the religious classes.

Some school districts in at least 11 states conduct such programs: Alabama, Illinois, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Texas, Vermont and Virginia, and Hawaii.

2. Also unconstitutional—Any plan where religious education is conducted off school premises but during schoolhours and with the active cooperation of the school administration. Pupils are released from the regular school curriculum and teachers and church authorities cooperate in keeping attendance records.

Some schools in at least these 33 states have that type of a plan: Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, and Wisconsin, and Alaska and Hawaii.

3. Probably constitutional—The "dismissed time" plan in use in a handful of communities. Under this plan, all children are excused from school an hour early one day each week. They are free to go to church classes or wherever they please and no effort is made by the school to check on the pupils' activities.

4. Possibly unconstitutional—Religious classes held outside of school hours but in school buildings. NEA said this program may be illegal because tax-supported property is used for sectarion education.

Bible-reading is required by law in Alabama, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and the District of Columbia. Another 24 states permit reading of the Bible or repeating the Lord's prayer without comment. NEA said these opening exercises apparently are not directly affected by the campaign decision.

Women's Sextet Sings At Calvary Services

A women's sextet sang at the evangelistic meeting at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church last night and Rev. W. L. Mullet of Walhonding, evangelist, sang a solo. The sextet included Mrs. R. W. Faulkner, Mrs. Ralph Bauer, Miss Ruth Zachman, Mrs. Viola Rinnert, Mrs. Howard Lehner and Mrs. LeRoy Stull. It was announced that host and hostesses for tonight are Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hinamon, Mrs. Frances Stricklin and Mrs. Elmer Harruff. As part of his message Rev. Mullet said, "If people will believe the gospel there is a transforming power in it. There are so many people today who call themselves Christians whose Christian profession is built around a denominational belief. There are a lot of people who have a 'leaky bucket experience,' those who have heard enough, but it has leaked out before it was able to do them any good."

FAST TIME VOTE AHEAD

BUCYRUS, March 25—Bucyrus citizenry, invited to express its wishes in the proposed adoption of daylight saving time, had today cast only 217 votes on the question, one week after city council left the question up to the wishes of the populace.

Votes carrying signatures were registered 157 in favor of the change and 60 against.

Several manufacturing concerns are circulating petitions for an expression from workers.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

MR. "K." grinned a bit sardonically at Dicky and me as we entered the dining room, but Georges evidently was in the forbidding mood which unsated hunger brings.

"Your housekeeper certainly stands in great awe of you," he told me when we were seated at the table. I really was quite faint after our journey, and my interview with you"—his tone intimated that I had said terrible things to him—"but when I asked her if I might have a cup of coffee, she said you would be down in two or three minutes, and that she never served anything when you were in the house, unless you were at the table."

I knew that Katie never carried her peculiar theories that far. Georges must have "rubbed her the wrong way." I could imagine the lofty manner in which he had asked for the coffee. I would have sent for the coffee immediately for any other guest. But I was in no mood to humor the petulant royal play-boy, although I made my voice placating.

"I am sorry, Georges," I said, "but you will have a cup of coffee almost at once. I can hear Katie's footsteps, and she always brings in the coffee service the first thing. The fruit juice is already on the table, however, if you prefer that first."

"If it does not interfere with your schedule, I should prefer the hot coffee first." Georges said, and his voice was sarcastic almost to insolence. I realized that he was enraged at the scoring I had given him concerning Mary, and had hard work to control my risibles as he went on with childish petulance which he evidently fancied as royal rebuke.

"I fear I never shall grow used to your American custom of drinking cold fruit juices before your meals," he said, and he might just as well have used the adjective "barbarous." His opinion of our civilization and our ways patently was at its nadir.

The coffee service was at my side now, and Katie had rushed out into the kitchen again, I knew, for the platters of chicken and biscuits. I hastily poured out a cup of coffee and passed it to Georges, then looked at Mr. "K." and at Dicky.

"Would either of you like a cup of coffee now?" I asked.

"Not I, my dear," Dicky said with elaborate emphasis. "I'll stick to our quaint American custom of fruit juice first."

"I'll follow my host's example," the FBI man said, and I took up my own fruit juice glass containing one of Katie's best concoctions, home made currant juice.

"Yum yum!" Dicky said. "This is one of Katie's outstanding efforts."

"It's the last word," Mr. "K." said, and both men drained their glasses. But Georges stubbornly left his untouched, even after he had drained his coffee cup, and I hastily served him first with generous helpings of chicken and biscuits and the canned baby lima beans from our own garden which Mrs. Ticer had brought in.

I noticed with relief that his resentment against me did not affect his appetite. He proved himself as "valient a trencherman" as did Mr. "K." and when Katie brought on one of her best efforts, a shortcake with fresh strawberries from our freezing locker, he unbent sufficiently to praise it enthusiastically.

But he drank his fruit juice the last thing, as if it were an after-dinner liqueur. When he had finished, mindful of my husband's injunction, I "gathered the men up with my eyes."

"I trust you will excuse me," I said, "but I wish to go over the house for a few minutes with Katie and with Mrs. Ticer."

I tossed Mrs. Ticer's name into the ring purposely as a test of Katie's latest repentance, and though I saw her lips tighten for an instant, she immediately opened them in elaborate assent.

"Sure, I coom," she said, "Und I go get Meesis Ticer to coom along right avay."

But I hardly heard her. I found myself listening to George who was addressing Dicky.

"Do I understand?" he asked "that, as her uncle, you stand in loco parentis to Mary Veritzen?"

Communion Service At Epworth Tonight

In connection with a candlelight communion service at Epworth Methodist church tonight, Dr. Hazen G. Werner of Drew Theological seminary, Madison, N. J., will preach on "He Found It in a Tear."

At the Wednesday night service, he spoke on "What One Man Can Do," taking his text from Isaiah's description of a man who is "like a rock" in a desert, in the shadow of which verdure can grow. He cited men of such character down through history, with the courage of Martin Niemoeller as a modern example.

"No one has any excuse for failing to stand for his convictions," he said. "It takes only one person to establish the validity of living a God-like life, whereas it takes a crowd to make evil inviting to other people; one man would not have boldness enough to live an evil life alone. One life that succeeds in goodness makes an imprint that cannot be erased."

Pray in Jerusalem While Rifles Bark

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, March 25—Christians knelt in prayer this Holy Thursday in Jerusalem, while around them rifles barked in the bitter strife between Arabs and Jews.

Holy week worshippers prayed in commemoration of Christ's last supper, His betrayal and arrest. While they knelt here gunfire clattered from an Arab village on a hillside where, the Bible says, Judas Iscariot hanged himself.

The danger of death cut to a mere handful the number of Christians of Roman Catholic and Protestant faith who usually participate in daylong services.

Balks at Jail Term, Then Can't Be Found

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., March 25—When the judge said, "Ten days," Harold Offenbaker, 20, of Newark, gasped:

"For goodness sake, you aren't going to send me to jail are you?"

"Yes, sir," replied Common Pleas Judge Charles B. Holtsberry.

"I'm not going," Offenbacker cried, jumping from his seat and running out of the room where he appeared on a contempt of court citation.

That was yesterday afternoon. Authorities still sought him today.

PROTEST OF RUSSIA REJECTED BY BRITAIN

By The Associated Press

LONDON, March 25 — Britain rejected today Russia's protest against the United States-British-French negotiations for rebuilding western Germany's economy.

A firm note to the Soviet government said Great Britain wished "entirely to repudiate the accusations" made by Russia that the negotiations violated the Potsdam agreement.

The note blamed Russia for the breakdown of four-power cooperation for restoring Germany's economic unity.

Decision Reserved On Nichols Appeal

Special to The Star

KENTON, March 25—The Third district court of appeals today had reserved its decision in the appeal of Lester Nichols, 42, from his sentence of death in the electric chair for the slaying May 6, 1947 of Rev. Lewis Whittaker at the Whittaker home in West Newton.

On April 12 in Bellefontaine a hearing will be held in the appeal of Roger Williams, 34, also sentenced to death in the slaying of Mrs. Minta Webb Rothwell of Kenton, his former housekeeper.

Mrs. Rothwell was slain at an Indian Lake resort last summer. An indefinite stay of execution was granted Williams pending final determination on his appeal.

Nichols had been sentenced to die April 30, and Williams' execution was originally set for March 1.

Four Boys Hurt in Mishap Still Show Improvement

DAILY LENTEN MEDITATION

CHRIST in You, THE HOPE of Glory

* * *

LOVE AS CHRIST LOVED

John 13:34. "A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

MAUNDY Thursday, the day that commemorates the new "mandatum," the new commandment that our Lord gave to the disciples in the upper room. That they should love one another was not new; but that they should love one another as Jesus loved them—that was new. Jesus loved them so much that He desired their eternal salvation. It was this same love that prompted Him to lay down His very life so that eternal life might be possible for all men.

Here the Savior gives us the simple key that unlocks the baffling problems among men. If only we loved all men to the point that we actually desired nothing less than their eternal salvation! With such a love in the hearts of all, what difficulties among men and nations could not be solved? Such love is not natural; it is born of the Spirit. Let us ask Christ to give us this love. Amen.

REV. M. E. HOLLENSEN, Pastor,
Emanuel Lutheran Church.

SPELLING BEE HELD BY LEGION GROUPS

A joint meeting of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, American Legion, and the auxiliary to the post was held Tuesday night in the Dugout. An old-fashioned spelling bee was the highlight of the program with 20 persons making up the class. All were in old style costumes, with W. E. Orcutt serving as the professor and Fred Miller as the truant officer. First prize in the spelling bee was won by R. E. Copeland, and second prize went to John H. Moore. School songs were sung by the group with piano accompaniment by Harold Denzer, and a comedy reading, "School Days," was given by Mrs. W. E. Orcutt.

An announcement was made that the post is planning to participate in the Army day parade April 6. Plans were made to send the bowling team to the ABC district tournament to be held in April in Toledo.

At the next meeting, April 13, certificates will be awarded to the eight winners from Marion in the recent Legion essay contest, sponsored locally by Bird McGinnis post. Parents of the winners are invited to attend this meeting, when the awards will be made.

[illegible] second anniversary [illegible] first meeting of the [illegible] security council in [illegible]

[illegible] day of unalloyed re- [illegible] optimism, to speak [illegible] for things have [illegible] these two years. [illegible] the UN is passing [illegible] its blackest days, [illegible] leader or delegate [illegible] signs of throwing up and [illegible] as [illegible] for [illegible] the [illegible] be- [illegible] un- [illegible] so [illegible] at times [illegible] many observers are [illegible] whether the time [illegible] to put some fresh [illegible] into operation to [illegible] organization or, let us [illegible] complement it.

The [illegible] League of Nations [illegible] in the main because it [illegible] on its duty. Some members continued to play power politics and there were others like Japan and Italy which had aggression in their hearts and deliberately made war for conquest. Japan's invasion of Manchuria in 1931 establihed the precedent which inspired Mussolini and Hitler to follow suit, but the league temporized with the Japanese case and finally dismissed the matter by telling the Nipponese they were bad lads.

MACKENZIE

OUR NEW UN ALSO has aggression-minded nations among its membership and has become a house divided against itself. We have the Russian communistic bloc on the one side and the democratic bloc on the other and the differences have become so great that the work of the organization has been largely brought to a standstill despite the fact that the majority lies with the democracies. The stalemate has been achieved by Russia's employment of the veto power in the security council which alone can take action to prevent or punish aggrssion.

Because of this impossible situation there is increasing demand from many quarters for a revision of the UN charter or, short of that, for the creation of a new organization comprising the entire democratic bloc. This bloc would, of course, include the newly formed Western European Union.

REVISION OF THE CHARTER is called for in a resolution introduced by sixteen members of the U.S. house of representatives—eight Democrats and eight Republicans. This resolution proposes to eliminate the use of the veto on issues of aggression, armament for aggression and admission to membership in the UN. Russia would be invited to participate in the revised organization.

There are those who are afraid of such a step on the grounds that it would widen the breach between the two worlds. Well, that need no longer be a cause for hesitation, because the division already is complete. We have a Communist world and a democratic world, and nothing is going to alter that. What we can do, howecer, is to strengthen the democratic blos so that it will be able to withstand Communist aggression—for that's where the aggression lies.

Everything else having been tried, this is the moment for a consolidation of the democracies. That would strengthen the hand of peace.

Hal Boyle is on vacation for a week. His column will be resumed when he returns.

Galion Woman in Hospital, Child Also Injured.

Three automobile accidents in the last several days resulted in injury to one person, the state highway patrol reported today.

Mrs. Donald Wake of near Galion suffered a fractured rib yesterday at 4:30 p. m. five miles west of Galion on route 30-S when a car driven by Mr. Wake, following a tractor and trailer driven by Albert Rine of Massillon, suddenly slowed, and was caught between it and a third truck driven by Robert Grace of 579 Adams street of Marion. The car was thrown against a stone wall along the highway. Donald Wake Jr., age one, another passenger in the car, suffered minor injuries. The injured were taken to the Galion hospital in a Timson Allen ambulance.

A car driven by William Good, 50, of Lakewood, O., headed north in Mt. Gilead at 11:10 a. m. yesterday was struck while stopped by one driven by Robert Kramer of Cardington, going north. Minor damage to the Good car was reported.

At 11 p. m. Tuesday, a mile and a half east of Mt. Gilead on route 42, a tractor and trailer driven by William Lattin of Columbus, O., ran into the ditch along the highway when the driver fell asleep. Minor damage resulted to the truck. Traffic on route 42 was held up three hours while the truck was being pulled out, the patrol said.

SALE OF SADDLE HORSES DRAWS MANY FROM AFAR

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, March 26—One of the largest crowds ever to attend a horse sale at Bucyrus Livestock commission barns was on hand Tuesday for the spring saddle horse sale at which about 400 saddle horses went on the block.

Buyers came from eastern and central states and horses were for sale by owners from Kentucky, Texas, Kansas, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio. The sale, which got underway at 1 p. m. continued until 2 a. m. Wednesday.

Bucyrus hotels were filled to capacity and owners and buyers were obliged to secure lodging in adjoining cities. Work horses and mules were sold Wednesday at the regular weekly sales. Although prices were not up to those of last year's spring sale the attendance was believed the largest ever on hand for a sale.

DID YOU KNOW?
NERO DID NOT FIDDLE WHILE ROME BURNED

To begin with the "fiddle" was not yet invented. But even if it had been Nero couldn't have played it or any other musical instrument at the burning of Rome, because he was some fifty miles away at his villa in Antium when the fire occurred and did not return until the city was in ashes.

New York Stock Quotations

NEW YORK, March 25—It was another case of selectivity for today's stock market.

Dealings tapered after a fairly active start. While assorted favorites remained in the plus column, many leaders displayed slightly easier tendencies near midday.

Superior Oil of California was a climber. Ahead most of the time were Northern Pacific, Southern Railway, General Motors, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Kennecott and Westinghouse Electric.

Intermittent stumblers included Bethlehem Steel, Republic Steel, Chrysler, Glenn Martin, International Telephone, Anaconda, American Can, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, International Paper, Texas Co., Philip Morris and American Tobacco "B."

OHIO STATE university's spring football practice gets underway next Monday and among the freshman candidates who will work for varsity positions are a number who have battled Harding gridders in years past, including William Miller, Fremont, Carl Bertoch, Sandusky, and Robert Brickman, Richard Day and Park Blubaugh of Lima . . . Two promising freshmen backs who'll be out are Richard Widdoes of Columbus and Tony McCleary of Delaware . . . McCleary played for the Great Lakes Naval training base during the war and put in a season at Ohio Wesleyan on his return to college . . . Two varsity backs will not be out because of baseball duties . . . They are Pistol Pete Perini and Alex Verdova . . These two men are now on a tour of Texas for a six-game series . . . The OSU. diamondmen return from Texas March 29 and will play Ohio Wesleyan April 6.

THE BIG Cleveland high schools, which have kept pretty well to themselves in scholastic warfare, may get a chance to compare their strength with the other high schools next year, as far as basketball goes at least . . . A movement is under foot to enter the 17 Cleveland schools in the Ohio cage tournament, and they were invited to take the first step in that direction Tuesday when the Northwestern Ohio district asked them to join . . . But before the disrict group recommends to the parent Ohio State Athletic association that Cleveland be included, another spring meeting will be held to "iron out differences" . . . The Cleveland schools who form the Senate league, would like to play their own preliminary tournament and send a qualifier directly to the regionals next year . . . But there they run into the "differences," for the district board is afraid that if they grant that request, Akron, Youngstown, and Canton might ask for a similar set-up.

* * *

THE DETROIT Tigers are counting on Arthur J. Houtteman to provide the spark to fire a potentially great pitching staff into the top mound crew in the American league . . . Already loaded with such moundsmen as Hal Newhouser, Virgil Trucks, and Dizzy Trout, not to mention Stubby Overmire, Freddie Hutchinson, and Al Benton, the Tigers are counting on the 20-year-old who came up from Buffalo last year, to parallel his 7-2 performance with the Tigers and spark the older pitchers to a plus won-lost record . . . Last year, Newhouser broke even at 17-17, Trout went down 10-11, Trucks 10-12 and Benton 6-7, while Hutchinson and Overmire were the winners with 18-10 and 11-5 records . . . If fastballer Houtteman sets fire to the Tigers, there's a good chance the pennant will return to Detroit after a three-year lapse.

THE CLEVELAND BROWNS have just about completed the wedding ceremony with Ohio State university . . . They're only one man short of a full team of ex-Ohio Staters . . . And European style, they exact a lush dowery from their Buckeye bride:

Surrenders Last Year of Eligibility At Ohio State To Play with Champs

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., March 25—Ollie Cline, flashy Fredericktown, O., fullback, today surrendered his final year of eligibility at Ohio State to sign with the professional Cleveland Browns, two-time champions of the All-America conference.

Cline's announcement that he had signed, confirmed by Coach Paul E. Brown of the professional kings, came as another staggering blow to Coach Wes Fesler's 1948 grid hopes at the Buckeye university.

Earlier, star halfbacks Bob Brugge and Dean Sensanbaugher gave up their final season of collegiate eligibility to join the Cleveland club.

The fullback, a scintillating runner, declined to reveal the terms of his contract with the Browns, but said:

Treated Him Swell

"They treated me swell, as they do all their boys. I'm happy about the whole thing, and enthused over my chance to make good with the Browns. I'm looking forward to pro ball anxiously."

Despite the fact he has another year of collegiate eligibility, Cline became eligible for pro football because his class graduates in June. He entered Ohio State in 1944, led the Bucks in scoring and rushing in 1945, and then went into the Army after being twice rejected for faulty hearing.

In announcing he had signed, Cline said:

"The decision is entirely my own, and I hope no one is going to be mad at Paul Brown or at me. I am leaving Ohio State with good feeling and good wishes. I had a talk with Wes Fesler, and I think he understands."

Plans June Wedding

"I plan to be married in June. I feel I have a great opportunity with the Browns, and I've always wanted to play for Paul Brown. I feel that I have made the only logical decision."

He said he would return to Ohio State for the spring quarter, and that he "definitely will finish school."

Coach Brown said he planned to use Cline as his No. 2 fullback on offense, behind 234-pound Marion Motley.

"I've known Ollie for quite a while," Brown said. "I've followed his career with interest. He's a fine boy and a fine football player, and we're happy he decided to play with us. Ollie isn't big, as pro fullbacks go, but he can run—and I like 'em when they can run!"

In the National Professional league, the Chicago Bears had first draft call on Cline.

Near Full O.S.U. Team

The fullback's signature on a Brown's contract gave the Cleveland club practically a full team of former Ohio Staters—seven linemen and three backs. Former Bucks on the Brown roster include ends Horace Gillom and Dante Lavelli, tackles Lou Groza and Bill Willis, guards Lynn Houston and Bob Gaudio, center Tony Adamle, and backfielders Brugge, Sensanbaugher and Cline.

Cline said he planned to marry Miss Jeannette Bean of Urbana in June, spend the early summer at a Wisconsin camp, and report to the Browns in July at their Bowling Green training camp.

Matinee Club Granted July 5-24 Racing Dates

The State Racing commission yesterday granted the Marion Matinee club the July 5-24 dates for a harness race program, The Associated Press reported today. The dates were originally assigned to the Marion Trotting association, but that organization abandoned plans for a meeting.

The state commission did not act upon Beulah Park's application for spring dates yesterday. The commission postponed action until Monday, on advice of the attorney general's office. Beulah Park operators have entered a court appeal from a commission rule requiring it to install totalizators.

By The Associated Press

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, D. R., March 25 — A couple of rookie pitchers are catching the eye of Manager Leo Durocher of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Big Chris Van Cuyk from the Zanesville, O., Class D farm, and John Hall both looked exceptionally good in hurling the Dodgers to a 10-1 win over a mixed Montreal-Dominican team yesterday.

Van Cuyk allowed four hits and one run in five innings. Hall pitched four scoreless, hitless frames. He walked two.

PHILS THINK THEY HAVE CLUTCH PITCH

By The Associated Press

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 24—The Philadelphia Phils think they have found a clutch pitcher, and they don't mean a chucker who is hanging on the ropes most of the time.

The "stopper" is young Curt Simmons from Egypt, Pa. Many stories have been written about the sturdy young southpaw, but we don't recall seeing any concerning his ability to come through when the pressure is on.

Bob Carpenter, youthful Phil owner, gives this data:

"You know his record in high school and American Legion ball," Carpenter says. "What I like about the boy is his performance under fire.

"We took the Phils over to Egypt for an exhibition game, and with all the home-town fans looking on critically, Curt struck out 11 of our men."

Wilmington, Del., was the next stop in Simmons' career.

"At Wilmington," Carpenter continued, "and appearing in his first pro game, he fanned 14 men, with a crowd of 9,000 looking on.

"Wilmington had to win a game to finish in second place. Simmons won it. The club had to win its game in the semi-final of the Shaughnessy playoffs. Simmons won it. It had to win in the finals to make it league champion. Again it was Simmons.

"Then we brought him up late last year. He pitched one game, against the Giants. The Giants used Johnny Mize in the leadoff spot so he would get five chances to hit, as he was after the home run championship. He didn't get the home run, and the Giants got only five hits in losing, 3 to 1. You see why I call him a great pressure pitcher?

"How many games do I think he'll win this year? I'll be glad if he wins 10 games. We're not pitching an 18-year-old kid to death. When's he's 23-24 years old, maybe he'll be winning pennants for us."

LOMBARDO BREAKS RECORD

By The United Press

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 25—Maestro Guy Lombardo, who's been making records for many years, broke one yesterday and was after a new one today. The dark - haired orchestra leader broke the Gold Cup Speed record for powerboats yesterday in his sleek "Tempo 8" speedboat when his craft shot over a measured mile in Indian Creek at an average speed of 113.031 miles per hour. The old Gold Cup record was 100.781 miles per hour set by Mendolaon of Detroit in 1940.

6 STAKE RACES SET AT CHURCHILL DOWNS

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 25—Six stakes races, in addition to the $100,000 added Kentucky Derby, are scheduled to be run during the first week of spring racing at Churchill Downs here. The Louisville track opens its nineteen-day spring card on Saturday, April 24, closes May 15, and Derby Day will be Saturday, May 1.

For three of the stakes, the 1948 renewals will be the seventy-fourth runnings. These are the Derby, Kentucky Oaks, and Clark Handicap. All three races were first run when Churchill Downs held its inaugural meeting in 1875, and all three have been run each spring over the same racing strip at Louisville.

Opening day feature at Churchill Downs will be the $10,000 added Churchill Downs Handicap, a seven-furlong test for three-year-olds and up. The Derby Trial, to which only Kentucky Derby candidates are eligible, will be up for decision on Tuesday, April 27. The Trial is run at one mile, and no winner of this race has won the Derby.

On Wednesday, April 28, the first of two added money events for two-year-olds will be run. On that date two-year-old fillies will meet for the $10,000 added Debutante Stakes at five furlongs. The Clark Handicap, for three-year-olds and up, will be decided on Thursday, April 29, at one mile and one-sixteenth.

The Kentucky Oaks, which has an endowment of $25,000, will be the feature on Derby eve, Friday, April 30. The Oaks distance is one mile and one-sixteenth. Secondary feature on Derby Day will be the second two-year-old stake of the spring program. Colts and geldings only are eligible for this race, called the Bashford Manor Stakes.

REDS HIT MID-SEASON FORM-LOSING STREAK

By The Associated Press

SARASOTA, Fla., March 25—The Redlegs of Cincinnati have reached what used to be their mid-season form — they have a losing streak under way.

The Rhinelanders, who tangle here today with the Boston Red Sox, bowed to the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2, yesterday for their third straight loss and, in the downcast Cincinnati camp, there was but one shining light—Ewell Blackwell.

Blackie gave up two runs in the opening heat but then breezed past the Phillies like a champion in the next five innings.

Ben Chapman, Philadelphia manager, was so impressed with the tall right-hander's performance that he told newsmen Blackwell should win 25 games this season.

The loss was charged to Blackie's successor, Herman Wehmeier, who permitted the Phillies to score their winning marker in the eighth.

Held scoreless by Schoolboy Rowe for the first four innings, the Reds picked up one run in the fifth and another in the eighth off Blix Donnelly.

Ritchie Ashburn, Phil rookie, tripled in the eighth and came home on an outfield fly.

Johnny Hetki and rookie Ken Holcombe were Neun's overnight choices to oppose the Red Sox.

Dizzy Trout Angling for Top Twirling Campaign in 10th Season with Tigers

By FRANK ECK
AP Sports Writer

LAKELAND, Fla.—Paul Howard (Dizzy) Trout, the right-handed Lefty Gomez, is looking forward to one of his best seasons with the Detroit Tigers.

A 27-game winner in 1944 when he led the American league with a 2.12 earned run average, Trout claims he is in better shape than ever.

"Last year I weighed between 210 and 215 and now I'm down to 206 and expect to be about 195 when the season opens," says Trout. "I have not been below 200 since 1945.

THUMBNAIL PREVIEW

DETROIT TIGERS

Pitching—Tops.
Catching—Fair.
Infield—Improved.
Outfield—Good.
Hitting—Lacks power.
Finish—Third.

Lots of Running

"I'm doing a lot of running and playing a lot of golf. It's better than sitting in a hotel lobby because the couple of miles you walk on a golf course strengthens your legs. The other day I shot a 78."

Manager Steve O'Neill, one of baseball's more congenial pilots, permits his athletes to play golf.

Most of the Tigers have taken salary cuts, some of them the full 25 per cent permitted under the new player-management agreement.

Trout is one who has taken a small cut. In 1946 when he won 17 he drew a reported $29,000 and last year he got about $23,000. The Detroit writers say he's down to about $20,000 now.

"I've only taken a small cut," says Dizzy, "and I will get it back if I have a good year. Make believe I'm not trying. Why I've got a strict diet, no potatoes, bread or butter or any starchy foods.

10th Season

"This is my tenth season coming up and I want to make amends for my 10 and 11 record of last season. It was the first time since 1942 when I won 12 and lost 18 that I've been below .500."

DIZZY TROUT
He Took Pay Cut

The 32-year-old bespectacled Dizzy is one of the hardest workers in camp. He realizes the Tigers have one of the best pitching staffs in baseball and with Art Houtteman ready to take his regular turn this season the Tigers will have an abundance of starting pitchers.

There's Hal Newhouser, Virgil Trucks, Fred Hutchinson, such spot hurlers as Frank (Stubby) Overmire and Hal White and Rookies Ted Gray and Walter Pierce. Gray and Pierce will stay or be traded for they have been optioned three times. Most likely they'll remain.

The Tigers tried to trade Trout. This is another reason for his determination to retain his regular turn on the mound.

He runs and pitches like a rookie trying to make good which brings to mind Dizzy's exploits when he broke in 10 years ago.

Wild Against Bums

"I'll never forget when I pitchere here against Brooklyn. I got real wild and walked across four runs. I finally got two out," says Dizzy, "but the bases were loaded and a big left hander came up to bat. I took out my little score card that I carried in my pocket and saw that it was Dolph Camilli.

'He seemed to be nervous, and the umpire seemed even more nervous. He kept dusting off the plate with his little brush. I walked off the mound and asked the ump 'what's the matter?'

"'I'm just sweeping the sawdust off the plate. It's coming out of his bat. That's Camilli hitting.'

"Mickey Cochrane was catching and he called for a curve, then a fast ball, then a curve, but I kept shaking him off. Finally the veins showed in Mickey's neck and he said "throw anything, I'll catch you barehanded.'

"Well I threw a freak pitch I had been working on. It was a forkball. It broke over the plate for a third strike. In the dugout Mickey asked me 'where'd you get that pitch?'

"'I've had it a long time, but you never called for it,' I informed Cochrane."

The other rookie story they like to tell is the time Trout borrowed a policeman's motorcycle. He rode around the park here three times, waving to Manager Cochrane each time.

On the third lap around the park Cochrane said:

"Keep on going, Trout, right out that gate for Toledo."

Dizzy Trout was insulted. He won 14 games for the Toledo Mud Hens that year. Maybe this is another one of those year's because Trout is sizzling.

ON OVERLOADING CHARGE

BUCYRUS, March 25—Charged with overloading a truck, Jack Charles Keene, driver for Modern Motors Express, Inc. Cleveland, forfeited a $25 bond when he failed to appear in mayor's court Wednesday.

Sports Chatter On This and That

By FRITZ HOWELL
Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS, O., March 25—This and that about the 1948 Ohio high school basketball tournament which pops up April 1, 2 and 3 at the state fairgrounds coliseum:

Glenford, the class B favorite with 35 wins in 36 starts, has 60 boys enrolled. Lima St. Rose has 95, Eaton 136, and North Canton 148, just two under the class A limit.

Findlay is the biggest of the class A schools with 338 boys. Hamilton Catholic has 247, Canton South 254, and Coshocton 284.

* * *

FOR THE SECOND time in the tourney's 26-year-history, brothers are bringing teams to the big classic. They are Clyde V. Vanaman of North Canton and Ralph Vanaman of Coshocton.

Clyde is a Mt. Union graduate, and Ralph a Muskingum alumnus. Other coaches and their alma maters: Charles E. Ash, Canton South, Ohio Northern; Carl C Bachman, Findlay, Bowling Green U.; Harold Mauch, Hamilton Catholic, and Fred George, Lima St. Rose, Dayton U.; Gene Ellington, Eaton, Earlham; and William Ross, Glenford, Ohio university.

* * *

HAMILTON CATHOLIC has nine lettermen back from 1947, Canton South and Findlay six each, and Coshocton two. North Canton tops the class B list with seven lettermen, Lima St. Rose has five, Eaton four and Glenford three.

The top scorers in the big event is Glenford's "Golden Glen" Hursey, three-time All-Ohio selection, who has pounded the hoop for 877 points in 36 games, an average of almost 25 per game.

* * *

LORAIN WON the first tournament sponsored by the Ohio High School Athletic association, in 1923, and survivors of that team of a quarter century ago will be guests of the association at the April 3 finals. All but one of the 1923 champs are still alive, Commissioner H. W. Emswiler said.

This is the first state tourney trip for Canton South and Hamilton Catholic, the second for Coshocton, the third for Lima St. Rose and North Canton, fifth for Glenford, and eighth for Findlay. Findlay reached the finals in 1936, losing to Newark, but lost in the first or second rounds in its other tries.

Only Glenford and North Canton of the eight entrants have ever copped the crown, Glenford taking the class B laurels in 1941, and North Canton in 1939.

Mansfield Relays To Be Held April 17

By The United Press

MANSFIELD, March 25—The 17th edition of the Mansfield Relays, "America's largest independent inter-scholastic track and field meet," will be held April 17, it was announced today by Harry E. Mehock, founder and director of the event.

The relays are expected to attract 100 schools and over 1,200 participants this year, an all-time high. Last year 88 schools and 900 boys took part in the meet.

The event, sanctioned by the National Federation of State High School associations, is open only to track teams within a 300-mile radius of Mansfield. Deadline for entries is April 14.

Mehock, who staged the first Mansfield relays in 1927, said entries are expected, as in the past, from schools in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, West Virginia and Kentucky.

Outstanding past performers in the relays who went on to college and Olympic fame included Jesse Owens, Dave Albritton, Bob Wright, Harrison Dillard, Mel Walker, Jack Keller and John Linta. Linta established a new inter-scholastic pole vault record during the 1939 meet.

If a ship is relatively unstable, that is, relatively capable of being capsized, she will roll in long, slow swings which tend to promote passenger comfort.

GEORGE BLACKBURN

GEORGE BLACKBURN NEW MIAMI COACH

Succeeds Sid Gilman Who Left for Army.

By The Associated Press

OXFORD, O., March 25 — George Blackburn, who helped pilot Miami university's 1947 grid team to an undefeated season and Sun Bowl championship, is the new boss man of the Redskins.

The 33-year-old Findlay college graduate was appointed head football coach at Miami yesterday to succeed Sid Gillman, who resigned recently to become line coach at the U. S. Military Academy. Blackburn had served since 1945 as backfield coach under Gillman.

Dr. Ernest A. Hahne, university president, who announced the appointment, said the action had been recommended by the Miami's athletic advisory council.

Blackburn, a product of Columbus West High school, earned three football letters while quarterbacking at Findlay, where he graduated in 1936. Later, he attended Ohio State university.

Before being brought here by Gillman, the new Redskin mentor coached at Pomeroy, Gallipolis and Cincinnati Western Hills High schools.

Joe Madro will continue as line coach under Blackburn and Paul Dietzel, center of last year's team which won eight and tied one in the regular season, will be retained to pilot centers and ends.

With the appointment of Blackburn, athletic director Merlin Ditmer announced Miami's nine-game grid schedule for 1948: Sept. 18, Marshall; Sept. 25, at University of Virginia; Oct. 2, at Western Reserve; Oct. 16, Xavier; Oct. 23, at Ohio university; Oct. 30, Western Michigan; Nov. 6, at Dayton; Nov. 13, Wichita; Nov. 25, at Cincinnati.

Boone Can Catch, Play Shortstop for Tribe

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, March 25 — Rookie Ray Boone may remain with the Cleveland Indians all season, because he can do two things—catch and play shortstop.

Manager Lou Boudreau says he may decide to keep Boone on the club as the No. 2 shortstop and at the same time as the No. 2 catcher.

The young recruit caught for Wilkes Barre in 1946 and last year moved up to Oklahoma City. Midway through the season the Oklahoma manager, Pat Ankenman, found himself desperately in need of a shortstop and so he gave Boone, then the regular catcher, the assignment.

The club moved from eighth to sixth place that season after Boone became the regular shortstop.

The Indians and the Chicago White Sox were rained out yesterday but they'll try again today. The Tribe's B squad is scheduled to meet the University of Southern California nine.

Newt Oliver Led Nation in Scoring

Newt Oliver, flashy Rio Grande college forward, scored a staggering 725 points in basketball this year, a report from the tiny college said today.

That was more points than any collegiate cager made this year. Newt also ran his national free throw record to 291.

Although not chosen on the APs All-Ohio team, Newt was picked on the Collegiate Magazine's All-Midwest first team as a forward by sports writers of 150 college publications.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

ARTURO TOSCANINI, born March 25, 1867, in Parma Italy, is, at 81, still acclaimed as the greatest orchestral conductor of his time. He conducts without score, demands perfection and works slavishly to obtain it. He fought Fascism with such actions as refusal to play the party hymn at a patriotic festival. Among orchestras he has conducted are La Scala Opera, Metropolitan Opera and New York Philharmonic Symphony.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

After a visit from ex-King Michael it was announced for Mr. Truman that he will not abdicate.

* * *

I heard Mike said, "I quit and look at me! Still a boy and can't find a job. What would you do?"

* * *

Otherwise things are quiet. The word from Washington is that the Japanese cherry trees can be referred to as Japanese this spring without bringing a visit from the FBI.

* * *

However the new rules say that ordinary caution should be used when speaking of "Russian dressing."

* * *

But it is good to know that Los Angeles and Philadelphia have patched up their feud over which is the larger city . . . I understand a Detroit man said "neither."

* * *

Philadelphia sent Los Angeles a television set, the better to see the city limits, and LA sent Philly a case of champagne, the better to see the two political conventions.
